Date (MM/DD/YYYY)

NOTE: If you are recharacterizing assets from the previous year, you generally must make the recharacterization by the due date of your income tax return (including extensions) and reflect it on your return. However, if you filed your return without making the recharacterization, you still may make the recharacterization within six months of the due date of your return, excluding extensions. If you are making this recharacterization after you have filed your return, you must file an amended return reflecting the recharacterization. Write "Filed pursuant to section 301.9100-2" on the amended return and file it at the same place you filed your original return. If you are recharacterizing assets from a previous year and submitting this form after April 15th, then check the box below that applies to you:

I filed my income tax return by the April 15th deadline.

I have received an extension to the April 15th filing date. Tax Filing Extension Date (MM/DD/YYYY):
